Davidson students enjoy the winter weather especially here.

The winter and spring seasons are the best times to visit Davidson. The snow-covered campus is a beautiful sight. Davidson's location is just what you need.

Where Do You Study?

This question is not one easily answered by most Davidson students: next day.

The library? OK, as long as the work is not really pressing and the socializing is.

Your room? Not unless you have sound-proof walls and an understanding roommate.

Chambers? Sure, if you can endure the deafening silence and have two reviews the Most students eventually do succeed in their quest for a comfortable spot which is neither too loud nor too quiet. (the search may include several trips to the Union cafe, however) These places often incorporate a brilliant imagination: broom closets, bathrooms, eating house basements, top bunks, Ham 'n Eggs, and yes, sometimes even the library.

The Freshman Experience

This random combination of students all arrived on the same day to discover that they had been assigned by the R.L.O. to the same hall. No discernable pattern was evident in their placement, yet by the end of fall term, it was as though the group had been together for years.

Through orientation, boat-building (for the regatta), flickerball games, hall mixers, trips to the advisor's house, hall meetings, and months of living together, these twenty or thirty people began to appreciate the personality quirks in all their hallmates.

Although some of the people seemed strange at the beginning of the year, and some may still to this day, the freshmen hall gives new students a chance to experience college with a group of others who know just as little as they do about Davidson.

The Regatta was for both freshmen and hall counselors. Charlie Winn directs his hall in a relay race (top right), Joe B. Martin and David Ray lead their hall in a tug-of-war, while 3rd East members cheer on their hall-mates.

PAX

In the Fall, we retreated to the beauty of the mountains for a peaceful, relaxing weekend. In the Winter, we attacked the slopes. In the Spring, we headed for Kiawah, basked, ate, and proved formidable volleyball opponents to any challengers. In between all of this we ice skated, bowled, got painted, travelled from New York to Paris, feuded with Dueling Blenders, hosted the Communist Party, and took our semi-formal to the lake.

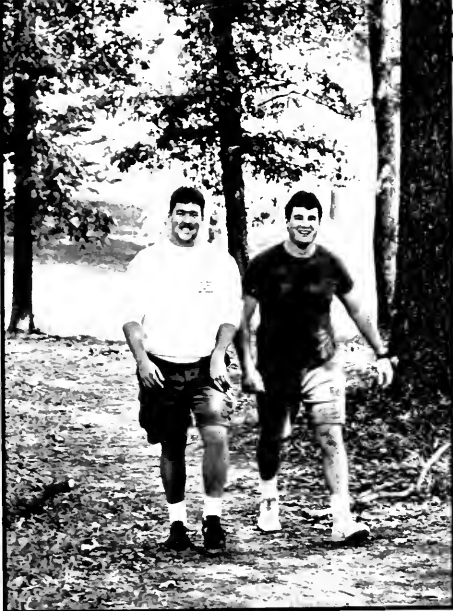

This was a great year for PAX. We grew, our food was fabulous once again, our IMAC teams stood strong, and we had fun. Our doors are open to men and women who want to discover the unique experience (and it is an experience!) of co-ed eating. More than that, our doors are open to anyone who wants to have a share in some fun — our house is always stocked full of that ingredient.

Phi Delta Theta

Pi Kappa Alpha

Diverse, yet United

One of the qualities that Pi Kappa Alpha boasts is its diversity. From basketball players to artists, and from ROTC cadets to ex-greenpeace employees, we are made up of a wide range of college men. But this diversity comes hand in hand with a sense of unity in our fraternity (Possibly because, as one brother puts it, "We're all GAWDS!"). Despite the fact we have different interests, we are very accepting of one another. This makes us more open-minded than certain newspaper cartoonists tend to think. It is very difficult to paint an image of a "typical" Pike. We are proud of this.

Rusk

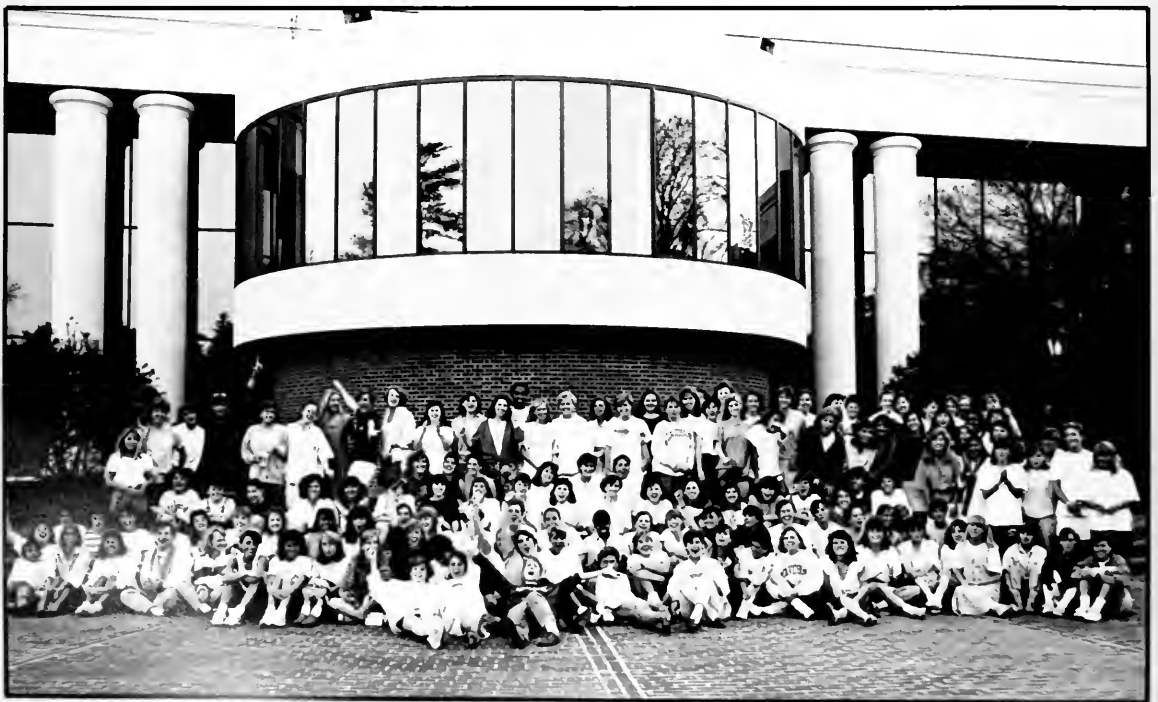

Mary Freed

The home of the Huskies has survived another eventful year. The decadent, yet delicate women of Rusk had a full social calendar including the infamous fall Policeman's Brawl, winter's even more infamous Heaven 'n Hell, and the springtime favorite Destination Unknown.

But along with the partying and eating, we managed to have several successful service projects. Our little sister program grew even larger and included more Davidson elementary school children. We also helped the older segment of Davidson by raking, cleaning, moving, and painting for some of the community's senior citizens.

With our 45 new freshmen, Rusk maintains its diverse membership. We have something for everyone: seven-layer bars, service projects, and some incredible parties.

Sabrina Walton, Heather Wright, Morrow Reeves

Hetsy Rothschild, Barbara Mathency, Eileen Keeley

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity maintained its traditional position at the top of student life at Davidson in 1987-88. This year SAE strengthened their long-held tradition of community service, campus leadership, and an unequalled social calendar. As always, we are guided by the wisdom and strength of Minerva.

— Joe Moss

Sigma Phi Epsilon

This past year was a success for the brothers of Sigma Phi Epsilon. Under "Coach" Sledge's management, the Sig Ep's excelled in IMAC flickerball and softball. In addition, Jim Walker played on the Davidson soccer team and Alex Boss led the rugby club team. Socially, the traditional Champagne and Pajama and Pirate parties lasted long into the night under Chris "Homer" Duke's supervision. Not to be left out, Sig Ep scholars also excel on campus. Jim Earle and John Allison were nominated into the Phi Beta Kappa while Trey Harrell is a member of ODK. Bill Scouten continues in the SGA as sophomore president. In the fine arts, Robert Austell arranged the music for "Godspell." In "Good," Lee Eichelberg, Grant Morain, and Scott Spies played SPE-Nazis. Here's to the fellows of Phi!

Spencer

87-88 proved yet another fantastic year for the women of Spencer House. While maintaining the fun loving spirit for which we are famous the Spencer-ites broadened their horizons.

While the leaves fell and temperatures dropped Spencer took to the flickerball field with a vengeance proving, once again, it's not whether you win or lose, it's how you play the game!

We kept up our tradition of yummy Cookie Study Breaks for our foster child Sandra Pilar, and also volunteered to drive senior citizens to the new Food Lion on I-77.

Spencer maintained its fame for the best food on the court with the help of our two fantastic cooks Fannie Brandon and Mable Torrence for a third fattening year.

Moonbathing again set records for fantasy and fun as freshmen and upperclassmen alike caught quite a glow from fluorescent drinks.

Never long without a party, the women of Spencer brought out the champagne and confetti with a midnight bash called the Pre New Year's Eve.

When "The Grinch" and "Charlie Brown's Christmas" rolled around Spencer turned on the tube and sang right along with all of the Who's down in Who-ville while munching down on our own "Who" feast.

Winter Term meant fun in the snow as Spencer women attacked a certain fraternity with snow and ice. Self-Selection was a fantastic night for the women of Spencer. With an initial class of 39, the freshmen women found themselves welcomed into an already diverse group. The party itself could only be described as wet and wild while some unusual decorating took place at the hands of senior Tina Ramsaur.

Once into Spring term the new Spencer freshmen ran about campus looking for their boxers before finding their big sisters at Boxer Bash. Evidently our brightly painted boxers have created a bold new fashion trend on campus. The next day was one of fun in the sun with our combination spring cleaning/Big-little sister cookout.

Spencer's fame for fundraising was once again well-founded as we danced the night away with Kappa Sig for Cystic Fibrosis. While we were tired at the end of the night the "work" was well worth the $1900 raised.

Hiking Grandfather Mountain and trips to Linville Caverns were great preludes to the Spencer Formal in Boone, N.C. Even though the attire was formal, some members decided to get a new perspective as they climbed to the roof of the High Country Inn.

Once back at Davidson, Spencer-ites got down to the bare necessities as Tiki party resolved itself into a wild event that lasted until the wee hours of the night.

To wind up the year we said farewell to our wonderful class of seniors. The night was especially sad as we said good-bye to the first class of women to self-select Spencer.

All in all Spencer's third year was as great as the first two with event after event of fun. As each year passes we value even more the unique diversity that makes Spencer so special.

You never forget the people who share your sailing expedition.

Turning the unfamiliar into an adventure.

At one with the elements, and with myself.

Teamwork and trust.

Learning navigation. Learning to love a challenge.

We watched dawn break over the water.

My new lifelong friends.

See the sights—humpback whales, auks, and puffins.

I thought sailing was all romance. The open sea, the slap of the sails, me looking tanned and athletic.

My Outward Bound vacation turned out to be romantic in a different way. I actually learned how to sail. I learned navigation and ecology. And I learned to live and work closely with 11 other people.

The 30-foot ketch we called home is descended from the whaling boats of the 1800's. We lived open to the elements, and to each other. No room for pettiness or anything less than enthusiasm. We discovered immediately that everything was simpler—and more rewarding—when we all worked together.

The big romance was discovery—of things I hadn't known I could do, of people who became friends as we learned to rely on each other. Outward Bound runs 500 courses for small groups of men and women, year-round, in sailing, backpacking, mountain climbing, rafting and canoeing.

You can find out more by getting the catalog. Just write to: Outward Bound, 384 Field Point Rd., Greenwich, Ct. 06830. Or call 800-243-8520. In Connecticut call (203) 661-0797. Outward Bound is a nonprofit, non-discriminatory organization.
